The Data We Collect

We will use your data for the following purposes:

- Deliver our products and services, or process your transaction: We will use your data to provide you with our products and services and to process your transactions. We will do this in line with our legitimate interests, legal obligations and in order to perform our contract with you.
- Banking operations support: We will use your data to enable and facilitate the provision and productivity of our banking services in line with regulation, laws and customer rights and interests. e.g. complaints management and customer relationship exit management. We will use your data to carry out administration services, account management, IT operations and infrastructure management. The lawful basis for processing these are legitimate interest, legal obligation and in order to perform our contract with you.
- Compliance with Laws and Regulations: Comply with the law, or any relevant rules or regulations. This may include to help detect and prevent crime (including terrorism, money laundering and other financial crimes), filing of relevant reports to regulators, tax authorities and government agencies to fulfil our legal obligations. This is carried out to comply with legal obligations because it is in the public interest and because it is in our legitimate interest to do.
- Preventing and detecting crime: We will use your personal data to take measures to prevent crime including fraud monitoring, fraud mitigation and fraud risk management. We carry out customer due diligence, name screening, transaction screening and customer risk identification, in order to comply with our legal obligations. We may share your information with fraud agencies, law enforcement and other third parties where the law allows us to for the purposes of detecting and preventing financial crime. Additionally we may take steps along with other financial institutions to help prevent financial crime and manage risk where we have a legitimate business interest or public interest to do so. We may be required to use your information to do this, even if you have asked us to stop using your information. This data will be used to: (a) Screen, intercept and investigate payments or instructions (b) investigate who you are paying or who is paying you (c) passing information to fraud agencies (d) combining the information we have about you with information from other QNB Group companies (e) checking whether the people or organisations you are paying or receiving payments from are who they say they are and are not subject to sanctions.
- Risk management: We will use your personal data to measure, detect and prevent the likelihood of financial, reputational, legal, compliance or customer loss. This includes credit risk, traded risk, operational risk and insurance risk. We will do this to fulfil our legal obligation and also because we have a legitimate interest in using your data for these purposes.
- Product and service improvement: We will use your data to identify possible service and product improvements. If you do not wish for your data to be used this way, you have the right to opt out.
- Cookies: When using any web-based application of QNB, we will ask for your consent to our use of cookies. The lawful basis for processing your data for the purpose is consent.
- Marketing: We will use your data to provide you with marketing information about QNB products and services. We will always give you an opportunity to opt out of receiving such marketing messages.
- Protecting our legal rights: We may need to use your data to protect our legal rights such as in the case of defending or the protection of legal rights and interests. We would use this on the basis of legitimate business interest.
